

The Harmonic Canon: Remixed

Date: Saturday 2 July
6pm: Workshop (optional)
7.30pm: Concert
Venue: Stephen Lawrence Gallery,
10 Stockwell Street, London, England, SE10 9BD

Join us for an immersive music event. This event marks the release of The Harmonic Canon Remixes on our record label.

Dominic Murcott has made a special new version of his piece The Harmonic Canon for this event. There will also be an ambient DJ set from DJ NikNak.

The Harmonic Canon is a piece of music written for two percussionists and a giant custom-made bell. This event will also include electronics, improvisation and an option for audience involvement. The music will be played in the middle of the space. You can move around, sit or lie down as you wish.

Played by percussionists Malgorzata Kepa and Rhys Davies, the piece is in two sections. The first section is fast and energetic, featuring live and electronic elements and the second is calm and meditative. Azerbaijani Tar player Morad Kashef will add an additional dimension on this small guitar like instrument and members of the audience are invited to be part of this section as well if they wish.

If you would like to take part in the performance, please attend the informal workshop before the concert. Dominic Murcott will explain how to take part and everyone will practice the music together. No previous musical experience is needed (though always welcomed) and all instruments will be provided.

The evening will finish with ambient electronic music from DJ NikNak.

You can buy our new album Harmonic Canon Remixes from Thursday 30 June. Available on Vinyl LP and digital, it features remixes from Loraine James, Lone Taxidermist (Natalie Sharp), Sean O-Hagan (High Llamas) and John McEntire (Tortoise).
